Scholium 1. Proof of the perpetuity from the prophecies of the Old Testament ..	122
Scholium 2. The expectation of Millenarism or Chiliasm .....	122
ARTICLE II – Bishops are successors of the Apostles .....	127
Thesis 8. Bishops by divine right succeed the Apostles in their ordinary office; each one of them presides over one particular Church.....	127
Scholium 1. On the use of the words Bishop and Priest .....	143
Scholium 2. On the mediated or immediate origin from God of the jurisdiction of Bishops .....	144
ARTICLE III – The Roman Pontiff is the successor of Peter in the Primacy .....	149
Thesis 9. In the perennial Primacy by divine right the Roman Pontiff is the successor of St. Peter.....	149
Scholium 1. The Roman Pontiff by divine right has Primacy over the Church ..	163
Scholium 2. The proof of the Primacy is independent of the fact and of the right of the Roman episcopacy of Peter .....	165
Scholium 3. St. Peter lived in Rome and suffered martyrdom there .....	165
Scholium 4. The Roman Episcopacy of St. Peter .....	166
Scholium 5. On the nature of the right by which St. Peter joined the Primacy to the Roman Episcopate .....	168
ARTICLE IV – On the power and nature or the Primacy .....	175
Thesis 10. The primatial power of the Supreme Pontiff is universal, ordinary, immediate, truly episcopal, supreme and full, and on earth there is no judgment higher than his.....	175
Conclusion – The Roman-Catholic Church alone is the true Church of Christ ..	183
Thesis 11. From the demonstrated divine institution and perpetuity of the Church, of the Hierarchy and of the Primacy it is inferred: that the Roman-Catholic Church alone is the true Church of Christ.....	183

CHAPTER II – On the perennial subject of the infallible Magisterium .....	198
ARTICLE I – The infallibility of Bishops .....	198
Thesis 13. Bishops, successors of the Apostles, are infallible when in agreement with the Roman Pontiff they impose on the faithful a doctrine to be held definitively, whether in a Council or outside of a Council.....	198
Scholium 1. On the ecumenical Council .....	207
Scholium 2. The series of ecumenical Councils .....	210
Scholium 3. The exercise of the ordinary infallible Magisterium .....	212

ARTICLE II – The infallibility of the Supreme Pontiff .....	215
Thesis 14. The Roman Pontiff, when he speaks ex cathedra , possesses the infallibility with which the Divine Redeemer willed the Church to be endowed .....	215
Scholium 1. Is there one subject of infallibility or two? .....	232
Scholium 2. Is there one or two ways in which the Pope exercises infallibility? ..	235
Appendix. Can the Pope as a private person fall into heresy? .....	240
ARTICLE III – The Authentic Magisterium of the Holy See .....	241
Thesis 15. Internal and religious assent of the mind is due to the doctrinal decrees of the Holy See authentically approved by the Supreme Pontiff ...	241
Scholium 1. On the nature of the assent that must be given to the decrees, concerning which the thesis deals, according to the opinions of the authors .....	247
Scholium 2. On the proper object of the assent. .....	249
CHAPTER III – On the object of the infallible Magisterium .....	252
ARTICLE I – On the primary object of infallibility .....	252
Thesis 16. Per se revealed truths are the primary and direct object of the infallible Magisterium .....	252
ARTICLE II – On the secondary object of infallibility .....	259
Thesis 17. Other truths that are necessarily connected with the revealed truths are the secondary or indirect object of infallibility .....	259
CHAPTER IV – On the sources of the Magisterium of the Church .....	281
ARTICLE I – On the deposit of the faith .....	281
Thesis 18. Revelation, constituting the object of Catholic faith, was completed with the Apostles.....	281
Scholium 1. Dogmatic progress, even given the impossibility of increasing objective revelation, nevertheless can take place in various ways and does take place .....	287
Scholium 2. The understanding which the Apostles had of the deposit of faith—was it more perfect than what is had today by the Church, or was it not? .....	287
ARTICLE II – On the primary source of revelation .....	293
Thesis 19. The primary source of revelation is the divine tradition of the Apostles, which in antiquity, fullness and sufficiency surpasses Holy Scripture itself. ....	293
Scholium 1. The argument of prescription .....	306
Scholium 2. The distinction of the Magisterium from the sources of revelation.	307
CHAPTER V – On the criteria of Tradition .....	311
